GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

Another strike on the road to White Oaks.

Last night was the first star light night for a week.

The train from Santa Fe will arrive at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The electric light may be used in the new hotel at the Hot Springs.

Bridge street is looming up as one of the most important business streets of the town.

Workmen are still busily engaged in getting the street car track in condition for running.

The south wing of the new front of the Jesuit College will be built at once, and probably the whole structure.

The White Oaks stamp mill is now running bullion from "Vera Cruz" ore. The mine's product shows up handsomely.

C. Blanchard had a force of men at work yesterday cutting off Mrs. Demarais' buildings on a line with the First National Bank.

It is requested that all members of the Shakespere Club meet this evening at the Academy building. A full attendance is desired.

The washed-out bridges this side of Wallace are expected to be put in condition for crossing between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning.

It is said that the well on the "Home-stake" mine at the White Oaks has been abandoned after sinking about fifty feet and not securing any water.

Six old miners from Silver Cliff, Colorado, friends of Charlie Case, arrived yesterday and will go out to inspect the Mineral Hill mining district.

The train from the east yesterday did not reach here till 7:15 p. m. owing to a delay of four or five hours waiting for a locomotive at Raton. It doubled back north again.

"Beauty" Gothwaite now presents the appearance of a Maltese cat, having had his hair clipped. The only thing calculated to dispel the illusion is the fact that he hasn't a blue ribbon about his neck.

Architect Wheelock was busily engaged yesterday in getting his effects together preparatory to moving into his new quarters in Marwede's new building between the GAZETTE office and Postoffice, to-day.

There was only a light mail for Las Vegas from the East last night. Owing to the short time given the route agents to work the mail, resulting from the doubling and re-doubling of trains, some of the mail has been kept back. But this will be regulated to-day or tomorrow.

Mr. T. T. Chapman has sold the good will and furniture of the St. Nicholas Hotel to A. D. Cronk, of the firm of Swope & Cronk of Santa Fe for $4,000. A billiard hall, bar-room and other additions will be made. Mr. Cronk intends making many improvements in the hotel and it is not improbable that more sleeping rooms may be added.

President Strong's great interest in the Las Vegas Hot Springs means considerable to this city. With our advantages in a commercial sense, and as the point of arrival and departure of tourists and invalids, who will visit our wonderful sanitarium and pleasure resort, we cannot fail of being greatly benefited.

W. A. Cornaby of Ft. Scott, Kas., special agent of the North British Mercantile Insurance company of London and Edinburgh, who has been in the city several days leaves for the south to-day. While here he established an agency of his company in Las Vegas, and C. B. Browning, the energetic insurance and real estate agent was placed in charge.

It has been officially announced that Mr. C. C. Wheeler is to succeed President Strong as General Manager of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. The new Manager was a passenger on yesterday's Pacific express from La Junta to a point just south of Springer, where President Strong's special car was passed. Gentlemen who were fellow passengers with Mr. Wheeler speak of him in very complimentary terms. A short sketch of the new General Manager will be found on the second page.

Circulating Library.

An enterprising citizen is agitating the question of starting a circulating library in the city. His idea is to form a stock company, which will lease light and roomy quarters for a reading room and library combined. A large number of interesting books of reference, and standard works of general reading will be purchased and the latter are to be loaned at a certain rental per day, for the time that they are absent from the library. A number of the leading magazines and periodicals will be subscribed for, to be at the disposal of those who pay a certain subscription per month for the use of the reading room. This is just what has been needed in this city and we hope that the gentlemen who are interested in the scheme will receive sufficient encouragement to carry out their plans.

OUR SPRINGS.

President Strong Greatly Interested in Our Wonderful Sanitarium and Resort.

Yesterday Col. W. B. Strong, the new President of the A. T. & S. F. R. R., visited the Las Vegas Hot Springs and had a lengthy interview with Fred Harvey, lessee of the eating houses and railroad hotels on this line. The outcome of this was that Mr. Harvey was given the management of all the Hot Springs company's property, and practically leased the bathing, stone hotel and the new hotel now erecting. Mr. Harvey after making this arrangement bought out Mr. T. F. Chapman, landlord of the stone hotel at the Springs. Possession will be given next Monday, and Mr. Harvey will make a complete change in the management of the house. As soon as possible it will be refitted, and no money or pains will be spared to make it worthy the place and to bring it up to the standard that such a house should be for the accommodation of tourists and invalids. To start with, the price for transients will not exceed $3 per day, and board by the week not more than $12 per week.

Mr. Harvey says that he has many plans, but prefers to work them out without starting out with too highly-colored a prospectus.

"I can assure you this much," stated Mr. Harvey to a representative of the GAZETTE, "it shall be my aim to make the Springs just what the most patriotic citizens of Las Vegas have desired to see it, a resort that shall compare with any in the country. Of course," he continued, "I could not accomplish so much, nor would I be so sanguine had I not the assurance of President Strong that he is greatly interested in making the Hot Springs a place of resort without a superior in the country. He is a gentleman who never does things with a flourish of trumpets, but having made up his mind to carry out a plan he never fails of accomplishing it. I know something of what his present plans are, and I have every reason to believe that he will successfully carry them out, but I do not care to say anything about them at present. It is enough to know that he is interested in improving the grounds and buildings, and will, at the same time, offer inducements for people to visit the Springs. President Strong will try to make it possible for everyone, who is in need of such treatment as the Springs afford, to visit them. Some reduction in railroad fare will no doubt be offered to such as desire to go there. No extortion will be practiced, and the charges for everything will be as reasonable as anyone could ask for. All these things of course will come with time, and you must remember that there will be unavoidable delays in carrying out many of these projected improvements. But I have given you some idea of what Mr. Strong intends doing, and what I shall be able to do."

When asked what was the prospect for opening the new hotel, Mr. Harvey only said, "That depends."

"I suppose you refer to the time when the travel will justify it?"

"Precisely. Everything could be in readiness in two months, but it may not be necessary to open it before next season. But when it is needed it will be ready, and it will be as well furnished as any similar hotel."

Mr. Harvey's connection with the Springs insures an increase in travel to Las Vegas, and far more visitors to this coming great resort. His name is a guarantee that everything will be done to provide all comforts and conveniences for those who may visit the Springs, which in itself will advertise them.

We understand that among the projected improvements is the construction of a swimming bath, and a mud bath for the treatment of certain diseases. A landscape gardener will be engaged who will beautify the grounds and make them attractive. Arbors, etc., will be put up and everything done to make it all that anyone could ask for, as a place of resort. The new hotel will be heated by steam throughout and a conservatory built. The problem of transportation to and from this city, whether by means of a railroad or a line of 'busses, will be solved in due time.

All this means much to Las Vegas. It insures us great prominence from great travel to this city, and increased business. We have every reason to feel grateful to President Strong for the interest that he is taking in the matter. It may be months before the improvements are made, but we believe that they will be one and all carried out in time.

The First National Bank is practicing intimidation. A handsome nickel plate has just been set in the counter at the paying teller's window that conveys the intelligence that the vault is guarded by a Yale time lock. President Reynolds evidently thinks that a gentle hint may save some one a little annoyance if they ever seriously entertain a break on the bank's specie. There is only one thing that we object to, and that is one of race distinction. The legend on the plate is engraved in English only, as much as to infer that all race, to be feared, is likely to be exhibited by English-speaking people.

PERSONAL.

M. Romero is up after a sickness of seven days duration.

W. R. Morley is slowly but steadily improving.

Clemm of Marcus & Clemm went south yesterday.

Mr. A. Maitland was among the passengers east yesterday.

H. Freeman started yesterday for his home in North Topeka, Kansas.

J. Rosenwald is down with a billious attack and has not been out for two days.

W. A. Chick, wife and two children are among the recent arrivals from St. Louis.

D. B. Lantry, of Lantry & Burr the heavy contractors of Topeka came in last night.

Colonel G. W. Prichard is home from the White Oaks. All looks well in that flourishing camp.

Treasurer E. Wilder of the A. T. & S. F. started for Topeka with President Strong yesterday.

Colonel Dickinson, Superintendent of the Hot Springs company, started for Topeka last night.

W. C. Hadley, of Mills & Hadley writes us that he is en route home having left Cincinnati on the 25th.

Ed. S. Alexander the waterworks contractor is in the city talking business with the directors of the Agua Pura company.

J. B. Rice, the genial proprietor of the railroad house, Watrous, was looking after business matters in the city yesterday.

El Hilty is in from Mineral Hill looking rugged as the hearty and honest miner that he is. The camp is going steadily forward.

President Strong who arrived here by special car from Santa Fe spent part of yesterday at the Hot Springs and then went east at 3:30 p. m.

Mr. Samuel Straus, with Jaffa Bros., Trinidad is down on a visit to his cousin, Mr. Straus, the manager of Jaffa Bros. store in this city.

Mrs. W. A. Givens is the possessor of one of the wild canary birds indigenous to this country. For beauty it just takes the shine off of the cage-raised imported birds.

Postmaster Furlong yesterday received the lost canary bird noticed as lost in yesterday morning's GAZETTE. A lady had purchased it, but on reading the notice brought it in and had it identified.

N. E. Stevens of the Leavenworth Times and W. S. Burke of the Kansas Farmer of Leavenworth arrived yesterday. They are on their way to Socorro and will spend some weeks examining the different mining districts in the neighborhood of that bustling little mining centre of the Rio Grande valley.

Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe.

The Galveston Commercial asserts that the main line of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railroad will be pushed through to New Mexico at an early date. This is strictly a Galveston road specially designed to reach out to New Mexico and here tap the Rocky Mountain system of railroads, thus drawing through this gulf city a large portion of the trade of this vast and rapidly developing mineral region. A branch of this road will soon be completed to Fort Worth, Texas, but the main line stretches out northwest from Galveston and will eventually enter the Pecos valley.

Las Vegas lies directly in its way. This will be the first town of any size it will strike and here it can form its connections with the various railroads which traverse the mining regions of the Rocky Mountains. Here it can connect with the D. & R. G. and here the Denver & New Orleans can find its most direct and practicable line to the Gulf. To put the matter in the most concise form: the country from Trinidad by way of Cimarron and Mora and the Pecos valley to the present terminus of the main line of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe in Texas is an unoccupied field. It offers wonderful advantages to a railroad in the way of local traffic and tremendous inducements in point of through freight between Galveston, New Orleans and all the Rocky Mountains. This is a field for some railroad to occupy.

The question for the Denver & New Orleans to consider is whether it will build through this country and occupy the ground, or let the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe come up and occupy it. It is as straight a line as can be built from Denver to the Gulf and if one road does not build it the other will. It is a question of who will be first to occupy and who will have the most miles of road. We apprehend that Governor Evans and the projectors of the D. & N. O. will not let this opportunity pass, without a thorough investigation at least, to construct the most important projected road in the west. It is practically an air line from Denver by the Pecos valley to a junction with the Texas Pacific and thence to the terminus of the Gulf & Santa Fe, and it is an air line with abundant local traffic.

It is said that there is four tons of mail for New Mexico and Arizona in the postal cars waiting to be worked.

Beautiful fans at Charles Hield's.

Farewell Party.

Mr. T. F. Chapman having sold his interest in the Hot Springs hotel to Mr. Harvey, possession to be given on the 1st of August, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will this evening give a farewell party to their many friends who are all cordially invited to be present and participate in the festivities. Music and amusements will be provided and a good time generally will be had. They have made the Springs Hotel a popular resort and many will avail themselves this evening of the opportunity to pay their respects to parting host and hostess.

The arrest of Howard for conspiring in the robbery of $700 worth of jewelry from J. E. Nelson, a late arrival from British Columbia, was at the instigation of an over-zealous acquaintance of the man who lost the valuables. Furthermore the arrest was made after all the jewelry except a beautiful charm and several rings had been secured by Arthur Jilson and McIntire the detective who had been given the case to work up. Mr. Nelson paid $80 to the fellow who made the play to recover his property. He thought that the wiser course, not caring to be detained here as a witness, in case he had the robbers arrested. Several of the kids about the dance halls were mixed up in the affair.
